

EDITOR'S TABLE

In Rio this year, eggs, lambs, dirty water and old wine, the missiles used during Carnival. As a matter of course, rows were numerous. We are not so bad here, after all. Fancy getting a bottle of the best black ink in the world!

Dr. Prudente Sarmiento, brother-in-law of poor Senator Gomez, got such a shock on hearing of the murder, that he has become insane.

Garcia, the great Spanish gambler, has just become a monk, as he has announced the other day. He still lives and plays at Huesca, Spain, and is finally convinced that it is his destiny to make another large fortune on the green cloth.

According to the Rosario papers, the close of Carnival here on Sunday last was a disgraceful display of riotism. So much the better, it will hasten the abolition of the nuisance. What can be expected of Rosario when we had such a display of brutality here in aristocratic Calle Florida?

The friends of the ex-Chief of Provincial Police, Sr. Dantas, have made him a present of a nice house in Calle Dos Unidos that cost $180,000 m/n. It is a pity that it is not the custom for subscribers to newspapers to make presents of houses to editors. This seems such an excellent custom because the rage the better.

An exchange says—Arabi Pasha may jump over the border wall at Cayon and resume his office as the False Prophet succeeds in making himself sufficiently false. Thousands of his coadjutors have visited him.

The new railway in Tucuman is to be laid with used-up railway rails. Pleasant fellow the empresario must be to propose such a thing to the necks of the public in this fashion.

Justice crawls in this country. In 1880 a party named Gomez Perez was "done out of a Lottery ticket that won 8,000 patacas, and only last week did Mr. Perez get his ticket and his money, and the thief two years imprisonment.

The London Gazette says—Ladies having fine dogs have an excellent excuse for following the latest London fashion of adorning correspondence cards and other elegant stationery with the likeness of living animals. The Duchess of Wellington's colley dog has been perpetuated in this way but the charm of such decorations is even in its being a likeness of the fair gender's favourite companion, and nobody with a colley or a setter of their own wishes to use anything else, even a ducal dog's head on it, however wonderful a specimen of the London engraver's art.
